Requirement:

We are seeking a Part-time Physician – Family Practice/Adult primary care to provide quality, competent, safe and compassionate care based on established standards in a patient-focused preventative and treatment care. Physician will work closely with a team of professionals to provide culturally sensitive, high quality, comprehensive health services to the community to achieve expected outcomes and comply with BSFHC Mission.

Job Responsibilities:

- Performs complete history and physical examination in accordance with current standards of professional practice, regulatory requirements and agency policies and procedures.
- Provides primary medical care to adults and manages acute and chronic conditions.
- Assesses patients’ conditions and age-specific medical needs; sets goals and prescribes appropriate clinical interventions to meet these goals.
- Prescribes appropriate laboratory and diagnosis procedures related to patients’ health status and facilitates appropriate treatment intervention predicated on results of these procedures.
- Provides comprehensive medical services for members of family, regardless of age or sex, on continuing basis: Examines patients, using medical instruments and equipment.
- Participates in quality assessment and improvement activities and achieves productivity goals. Examination of patients, formulation differential diagnostic plans, defines and orders required diagnostic testing.
- Interpretation of examination findings and test results, and implementation of treatment plans.
- Determines need for consultation and assists in medical care and treatment provided at the direction of other specialists.
- Answering patient telephone consults with the assistance of clinic staff.
- Orders or executes various tests, analyses, and diagnostic images to provide information on patient’s condition.
- Maintains accurate and detailed medical records about each patient, including observations during examinations (via EMR).
- Administers or prescribes treatments and medications.
- Promotes health by advising patients concerning diet, hygiene, and methods for prevention of disease.
- Writes orders to inoculates and vaccinate patients to immunize patients from communicable diseases.
- Refers patients to medical specialist for consultant services when necessary for patient’s well-being.
- Works continually to assure deliverance of quality clinical care in a safe, efficient, competent, and effective manner.
- Prepares records and reports as required in support of services rendered in accordance with established procedures.
- Attend and participate in patient care reports, patient care conferences, team conferences, professional staff conferences and other appropriate professional activities only to the extent that such attendance and participation is relative to his/her assigned cases and/or performance of services as determined by the Medical Director.
• Comply with all laws applicable to and practice within scope of Family Practice, including HIPPA.

Other related duties

• Requires the ability to relate to people of diverse backgrounds, cultures, races, sexual orientations and gender identities or expressions.
• Responsible for maintaining confidentiality of all patient, clients, proprietary, and protected information.
• Employees are accountable for meeting performance standards of their departments. They participate in compliance audits and quality improvement plans.
• Education – provides health teaching to patients and families, participates in development and delivery of educational programs for area health care providers.

Education/Experience Required:

• MD, current active and restricted NYS license
• Current CPR (BLS) certification (Required)
• American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM) (Required)
• DEA Certification
• 1-2 years’ experience in adult primary care

Other Related Skills/Experience:

• Experience working in community-based health care settings is also preferred
• Experience/An understanding of EMRs is helpful.
• The ability to demonstrate teamwork and effective interpersonal relations skills is imperative.
• Excellent written/oral communication and computer skills are required.
• Ability to foster and maintain a positive working relationship in a multidisciplinary team and clients

Benefits Overview: We offer attractive compensation with comprehensive benefits including: Medical, 401k Retirement Plan with discretionary Match, Free Life Insurance and Long-Term Disability, Transportation Plan, Generous Paid Vacations and Holidays.

BSFHC IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER